

Alfreton Park Community Special School
Learning Together for Personal Success
Lesson Study Process

Lesson Study is a professional learning process through classroom action research in which teachers observe or examine the practice of teaching

"Clearly, the value of lesson study is primarily in its process, the creating, the professional dialogue and in looking at a broader picture of what we do as teachers," Anon.

