

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Friday 10th February 2017

Proud moments:

- Work to install the new kitchen will be starting today and is due to be completed in 9 weeks.
- The old pool will be demolished during the holiday.
- Daniel R well done for taking 7 steps in the gait trainer this week.
- Lola has done some fantastic writing.
- Well done everyone for joining in a great Valentine Disco.
- Oliver read all of the 'Aliens Love Underpants' with Paula sitting beautifully, turning pages and pressing the buttons.
- Brandon in Ash has been focusing and listening really well this week.
- Thank you to Beth in Chestnut for working hard to support the class.
- Beech class enjoyed a good day out visiting pupils' houses and have done some great follow up work.
- Thank you to Louise to supporting Willow class so well this term.
- Jake V has been fantastic, tasting crispy duck and noodles at the Chinese restaurant.
- Jamie in Chestnut made a great self-portrait on Thursday.
- Bradley has been really good this half term.
- Most of Willow had a great fist swim in our new pools and James did really well moving around using just armbands!
- Thank you to all the staff for working so hard this half term to support the pupils and give them lovely learning activities.

I hope you have a good half term break next week

How can you help?

- We are collecting Sainsbury's Active Kids Vouchers again so please send them into school – every year we collect vouchers and swap them for some great sports equipment for the pupils to use.
