

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Friday 17th March 2017

Proud moments:

- Joseph in Oak coming into class and going home with a friend.
- All Oak students supporting each other and being so helpful.
- Dougie had a great fun swim this week with Chestnut class.
- Oscar is wearing big boy pants.
- Ash class had an amazing day at Lea Green, achieving low rope obstacle course, climbing wall and soft play.
- Peter independently spelt words beginning with 'D' and sounded them out.
- Jake in Willow did some super amazing sentence building!
- All the Willows did an awesome art session making volcanoes and dinosaur egg shells.
- Nathan was playing the guitar independently in the Willows reading room!
- Beech class had an amazing time at Lea Green on Monday. We all overcame our fears and tackled the skyline and zip wire. We all felt very proud of our achievements!
- Isabella has been talking lots in context.
- Chestnut class loved Holi day and learning about the festival of colour.

How can you help?
