

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Friday 31st March 2017

Proud moments:

- Joshua Hughes sowed individual sunflowers seeds into small plant pots that he had helped to fill with compost. He made sure each pot had its own sunflower seed, working independently with little adult help.
- Daniel Bentley Richards has done some lovely pronunciations of words he previously found difficult and has moved on to his next target.
- Brandon in Beech class has been linking feelings and emotions together and how this affects himself and others.
- Edward in Acorn class has been doing lots of segmenting and blending words
- Lewis in Acorn class has been happily writing a sentence in a morning with enthusiasm.
- Monty in Acorn class has done lots of exchanging PEC symbols in his communication sessions.
- Ben in Acorn class has done lots of signing and lots of communication on his talker at snack time and morning song time.
- All Apples have had a fabulous horse ride this term.
- Rubie in Apple has done some good work towards her quest target.
- Beech class had fun making dinosaur foot print biscuits this week.
- All Ash class have been superstars with their communication this week, moving on in their PECS use

How can you help?
